Physician Assistant should have completed Master’s Level training in a PA program.
- Licensure: Current NP or PA license from a US State, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, a territory of the United States or the District of Columbia.
- Certification: Current national certification as an NP from the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC) or American Academy of Nurse Practitioners (AANP). A PA requires National Commission on Certification of Physician Assistants (NCCPA) as PA-C required.
- Note: The Quality Improvement Staff of the Office of Medical Services must conduct a credentials review prior to making an employment offer. The Medical Credentialing process includes queries of the National Nurse Practitioner Data Bank and the equivalent for Physician Assistants.
- Note: Licensure and Certification must remain current throughout employment as Nurse Practitioner or Physician Assistant.

EXPERIENCE:
- Nurse Practitioner applicants must have a minimum of three years of recent experience as a registered nurse (RN) providing direct patient care, PLUS a minimum of one year experience as a practicing nurse practitioner (NP). A Physician Assistant must have either three years practicing as a PA or a minimum of three years of recent experience as a registered nurse PLUS a minimum of one year experience as a practicing physician assistant (PA). The minimum of one year of NP or PA experience must be in outpatient primary care that includes chronic and acute emergency care, in an independent family or general practice setting.

LANGUAGE: (this will be tested)
- Level IV (fluent) Speaking/Reading/Writing English is required.

KNOWLEDGE:
Knowledge of NP/PA protocols; knowledge of health and physical assessment, medical diagnosis and appropriate treatments, proper nutrition, and related programs. Good working knowledge of local medical system and facilities.
SKILLS & ABILITIES:
Strong interpersonal and counseling skills; solid leadership ability to tactfully deal with patients, families, and allied health professionals to include the capacity to achieve the cooperation and confidence of patients, coworkers, supervisors, subordinates and allied medical professionals; ability to manage a health unit; ability to cope with medical crises; skill in evaluating patient care needs, ability to gather relevant clinical data, perform thorough physical examinations; working knowledge of a wide variety of computer applications to include Word, Excel, Outlook, and Internet Explorer.

HIRING PREFERENCE SELECTION PROCESS: When qualified, applicants in the following hiring preference categories are extended a hiring preference in the order listed below. Therefore, it is essential that these applicants accurately describe their status on the application. Failure to do so may result in a determination that the applicant is not eligible for a hiring preference.

HIRING PREFERENCE ORDER:
(1) AEFM / USEFM who is a preference-eligible U.S. Veteran*
(2) AEFM / USEFM
(3) FS on LWOP

* IMPORTANT: Applicants who claim status as a preference-eligible U.S. Veteran must submit a copy of the most recent Member Copy Four (4) of the DD-214, Certificate of Release or Discharge from Active Duty, and, if applicable, a letter from the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs. If claiming conditional eligibility for U.S. Veterans’ preference, applicants must submit proof of conditional eligibility. If the written documentation confirming eligibility is not received in the HR office by the closing date of the vacancy announcement, the U.S. Veterans’ preference will not be considered in the application process. Mission HR’s decision on eligibility for U.S. Veterans’ preference after reviewing all required documentation is final.

 This level of preference applies to all Foreign Service employees on LWOP.
